Volume II Chapter 56 Who is the Oriole? Who is the Cicada?  Part 1

Chinese idiom, from Daoist classic; The mantis stalks the cicada, unaware of the oriole behind. Meaning : to pursue a narrow gain while neglecting a greater danger).*

What is that supposed to mean? Is he saying in this war Sang Nuan was not in danger, but she she is the one in danger?

She slightly pats the yellow paper hidden in her waist. Su Su decided not to think about the fear of losing when there was without a winner yet, that was it, she must not fear defeat when there was no victor yet, if there would be a danger and she cannot hide then just move forward to meet go through it head on!

" Ao Qī you check for me 56 well dispose assassins in the east side beach . Ao Shísān, you lead the person of good naval battle skills to the position of warships completely and equally distribute them to the seven ships, then meets me there afterwards."

" Yes. "The two people after receiving the command quickly left.

From the seized boat crew, he found several old crews, leading them to check the fourteen boats together and commanded them to reinforce and fixed some of the three broken boats. Su Su turned towards the east of the beach, Ao Qī have more than 50 people waiting there, they do not stand neatly, no exchange between each other of acknowledgement, but what faintly emits was stern and somber aura, constantly let Su Su Sigh, assassins and the soldiers are really different.

Su Su just arrived in front of them when she spotted in the distant place, Sang Nuan , with more than 20 people walking towards her.

Su Su asked, "Why did you come?"

" I have the thing that you want."

Su Su discovered that next to the man was something wrapped in a bag of paper, looking at this large parchment; it was not a small component. Su Su was startled, "So fast?" She said before after three hours later, but actually not so sure if Sang Nuan have that many poison kept on the side, but they also need one that can be disposed of easily, after all no one who will keep that many toxicants on the side, but now It seemed that her assessment was completely wrong.

Sang Nuan smiled and said, "When I decided to definitely seize this island, I made many preparations, even if finally failed, I prepared enough quantity of poison for everybody to die together."

Sang Nuan said this statement as light as a cloud but the person behind her who heard it shivered, Su Su shook her head, "You really also, " ruthless enough ... Not only ruthless to others, but also ruthless with herself, if she does not succeed, she courageously die for her cause, not everyone has that.

Sang Nuan glanced at her with amusing look, wittingly said, "Hey, you are the one that said that I am suited to become the master of pirate nest? I hate the feeling of letting you down."

Su Su was speechless, she realized that since the last serious discussion with Sang Nuan, she barely seen that gentle smiling face in her expression anymore, that kind of adornment was also good, now she could only kept that really incomparable smile fondly in her memories!

She received the package on the side and Su Su asked, How to use it?"

"The powders were divided into small packets of paper. It is completely insulated, you can ask them to carry it on their bodies and when they need to use it, only need to break the paper packets and scatter it around." As she was talking she took out a small wooden box from her sleeve, when she opened the box there were small red pills inside slightly larger than the size of a bean. The pills have no special flavor, Sang Nuan did not cover the box and passed it to Su Su and instructed, "That medicinal powder toxicity is very strong, these pills are the antidote, for the sneak attack operation remember to take it prior, otherwise if they smell the powder as being scattered and they do not have the antidote and sniff it, they too will die."

Su Su curled her lips; this poison is really extremely severe.

Sang Nuan appearance looked almost to the one to be blamed and responsible, then said, "I will hand it over to you, I have to go."

"Ok, go on." Su Su took the small wooden box gave it to nearby Ao Qī, suddenly grabbed Sang Nuan on the arm, draws her at one side, fishes out that yellow paper inside her belt and asked in a whisper, "This what it does? What is the use of this?" She thought something was odd with Sang Nuan's expression awhile ago, her stopping her footsteps was very strange, obviously Sang Nuan knew the circumstances of the matter, she wanted to understand if there was anything wrong.

Sang Nuan glaced at the yellow triangular paper, lowered her eyebrow and appeared to think deeply the meeting, later stared somewhat weirdly at Su Su and asked, " He did not tell you?"

Su Su gawks at her blankly, Mo Yuan said ask her?! Sang Nuan probably not prepared to say what it was, she did not continue but guesses it saying, "Is it a píngān fú ?" (to be quite and safe charm or talisman)

Sang Nuan surprised, immediately smiled, "He said that is píngān fú?! Sang Nuan smile was simmering, nodded and patted Su Su's shoulder, "Truly will keep you safe and sound, and certainly received it properly."

"Hey!" Sang Nuan expression was too strange, it was not good, now she was more curious of this thing what was really the use of it, urgently said, "Are we not friends?"

"But" Sang Nuan knits the brows with an awkward appearance, sighed finally, incomparably said affectedly, "He is somebody else's cousins, ah ~"

Su Su instantaneously had a goose bumps flesh, stared at Sang Nuan like she wanted to swat a fly, Sang Nuan could not help it but laugh, Su Su while staring her, gnashing her molars and did a lot of talking to herself, " I will count you ruthless!

That person from Mojia, how despicable!

Under Su Su's supercilious look, in Sang Nuan's judgment it is better to leave quickly.

After Sang Nuan left, Su Su gathered her composure and said, "Group yourselves into six, each group will have two boatman and four assassins.. Liao Yue situation of warship inside the dense fog also you have to understand that the speed of movement is not fast, but definitely not slow also. The boatman is responsible of navigating your way inside the dense fog and four are responsible for assassinating, you ambush the warships on the way which must be taken, overtakes a recent warship to assassinate. As how to do it, you knew better than me, I not saying how, remember that there is only about a stick of incense time to get it done, we are people are few, such in a short time seizing the ship is impossible, since Sang Nuan poisonous powder is so easy-to-use, use the poison first then later can kill, given the time evacuate immediately and try not to have the casualties. Do you understand?"

"Understand."

"Yes."

Su Su was very satisfied with their responses and continued saying, "After you divide the good group, distribute the antidote, prepare your weapons that you need to use, you start tonight at haishi (9 to 11 p.m)."

"Yes."Not only the people from Ju Ling Island replied neatly, even the twenty pirate faces do not have the look of fear. Obviously these people were carefully selected by Sang Nuan. "

Su Su went to the beach where the Ju Ling Island ships were anchored, more than 50 people that Ao Shísān was leading waited with 100 people that Uncle Ma brought with him. Tomorrow at the front they will engaged head-on, actually in the offshore fight, they will not engage that hard to stop the Liao Yue but the goal was actually to direct them into the island and make them follow their retreat to the jungle. SuSu let them do the distribution of personnel, familiarized with ships fort and flag languages, time flies fast as they do the preparations and the sky was already completely dark.

Su Su felt that the wind on the beach tonight seemed to be very little. Squinting into the distance fog around the island, even in the dim night, she could see that the fog seemed to be a lot stronger, but in the whole afternoon on the beach she haven't run into Mo Yuan, she doesn't know what he achieved so far and he does not know where he went.

Su Su arranged all the matters that she had to arranged before going back to the medical shed, she already finished eating but Sang Leng and Sang Nuan has not come back. Su Su was guessing that they were still straightening up the deployment in the jungle, after all, time was not much. This was can be considered Sang Leng and Sang Nuan war to establish their prestige. Su Su straightened up before going out to the backyard. She went straight back to the room, ready to rest early to recuperate her spirit and recover some strength, for tomorrow, they will be meeting head on, for fear that there might be a unexpected situation tonight, Su Su just took off hes shoes and masks, and lie down with her clothes on.

Su Su normally sleep soundly but because her heart was laden with worries for tomorrows matter, she remained vigilant. It was indistinct but she felt that a line of sight lightly locks on her body, that sense of being a prey made Su Su open her eyes fiercely and there was really a shadow standing at her side, Su Su rolled over and at the same time roared , 'Who?!'

She had not thought that person also acts very fast, when she moves, he also moved, but not to back out but caught her shoulder, the whole person was pressing towards her, the man wall tall and as she tried to avoid the man, they fell on the bed together.

Su Su's shoulder was being buckled, her knee was also being suppressed that she cannot moved, when the person lowered his head, Su Su froze, as she gathers her strength to fight back but she did not expect the person to speak on her ear. Her ears can feel his breath and the voice was also very low, " You are also so alert, ah...."

Su Su was surprised.... "It's you?" Su Su thought also that Tantai Ye Lie perhaps will send someone to attack her sneakily but she has not guessed that the commander in chief himself before the war will submerged himself to the enemies camp unexpectedly before the war. This time Huan Lang Island has many masters. Tantai Ye Lie and Uncle Ao absolutely was not an opponent, Su Su cannot simply believe it, " You dare to come?"

"Why should I not dare?" Tantai Ye Lie coldly smiled, while his finger gently swept on Su Su's bright and smooth cheeks, the low and deep sound passes several points to tempt and entice with playfulness., " Su, if I have known that you are such beautiful woman, I should have abducted you away from the beginning and noweven if Mo Yuan is willing to exchange you with Lingshi, I am reluctant to trade."

Su Su was thankful and silently glad that she did not take off her outer coat tonight, ot things will be very awkward and distressful at this moment. Su Su looked at him indifferently and her voice was generally calm like normal , " If you want to snatch the Lingshi, then snatch if you must, think whatever your heart thinks, but I don't have to suffer listening to your disgusting words. Nevertheless, are the descendants of Tantai already not so good to this degree?"

Under his fingertips, the facial expression of the face was stiff, staring at the icily arrogant face, Tantai Ye Lie laughed jokingly. In fact when he came that moment he was stunned by her, he saw under the moonlight, she was not wearing the face mask, he was shocked for a moment unexpectedly young Fu Sheng said it correctly, her beauty surpasses one's imagination, even in her sleep, was an aura of divine wonderful spirit and vitality. Suddenly, he thought of her pupil, that light swift and fierce appearance, at that moment, Tantai Ye Lie hoped that she would open those eyes and let him take a good look how this pair of eyes and face looked together.

Certainly, his desire has been realized, she woke up at that moment that she opened her eyes, he heard a heartbeat sound crashing and spoke those words a moment ago, he wanted to look at her blushed appearance that was shy or angry out of shame and finally he expected her to hide but not actually, she unexpectedly had not hidden herself but as a matter of fact also spoke what she thinks in her heart. Oh my, crossing an extremely smart woman is really troublesome.

In the dim light of night, Tantai Ye Lie stared at Su Su eyes full of happy expression, his voice was also very pleasant, and "You are really interesting." This was a sincere praise, but what a pity, Su Su was not completely listening to this matter. Is this a provocation or harassment? How absurd?!

Su Su shoulders and knees although were being pinned down but her hand is very active, slowly groped under the pillow, until she traced the red copper scale fan and immediately wield the fan's sharp part on Tantai Ye Lie's neck, the purple mounting mount with murderous force. Tantai Ye Lie could only loosen Su Su and dodges towards the bedside. Su Su also rapidly sets out and the two fought in the same place.

The room was too small, Tantai Ye Lie also knew obviously fierceness of the red copper scale fan and its hidden weapon, he had pasted with her very close, Su Su does not have the opportunity to put out the concealed needles and must put together Kungfu fight against him. Su Su's effort was not very good, soon she was already tired and then suddenly, came a girl outside the door calling, "Xiaoshu, Are you alright?"

Su Su's heart become anxious, although their fighting sounds were not that big, but the person in same courtyard will normally hear it. The person outside the door was Qin Qian. Because if it was Sang Nuan, even though she hears the sound, she will decide not to make noise rashly. Su Su wanted to tell her to leave right away but Tantai Ye Lie grasps her throat. Su Su can only drawback anxiously, for a while she cannot open her mouth, the fighting sound in room became louder. After asking several times with no response, she made an effort to break the door unexpectedly. This small space was actually a patient's room and for convenience during examination, the door locks were not solid. So, Qin Qian was able to forced open the door.

Su Su heart burst with anxious sound and sure enough when Qin Qian came in that moment, Tantai Ye Lie's eyes erupted with the flash intending to kill, Qin Qian also clearly saw that the situation was not good, turned and ran out and yelled, "Come... .."

What a pity she only called a word when Tantai Ye Lie projected a concealed weapon unexpectedly, hitting Qin Qian in the middle of her vest, she fell forward and immediately, a blood has spurted.

"Sister Qin?!" Su Su in great surprise wants to go out but Ye Lie coldly tied her down on the ground.

Qin Qian was on the ground, she has not fainted but unexpectedly crawled toward the courtyard outside, while yelling, "QuickSomebody come quickly"

Tantai Ye lie's eyes darkened and Su Su in her heart knew very well, afraid of his concealed weapon, she has no other alternative, obliged to come near and separate his hands from Qin Qian and nervously said, " You do not have to kill her! "

When Su Su personal came forward quickly, Tantai Ye Lie bitterly step back, Su Su suddenly felt pain in her neck, her vision darkened and then passed out.

Tantain Ye Lie caught the falling body, sighed secretly, this woman was so hard to deal with.

Tantai Ye Lie was holding Su Su out of the courtyard . Qin Qian was still crawling outside, but because of the aching of chest, she could not scream. Tantai Ye Lie looked at her coldly and then lift his foot and kicked her in her abdomen. He does not know if Su Su's words affected him because he did not used full force, leaving Qin Qian behind fainted but still breathing.

Yinshi (3-5 am), ought to be the time when silence reigns, Huan Nuan Island have an unceasing sound of people's distant footsteps going in all directions and confused. Mo Yuan was lying down on the soft cot that Su Su used to slept on, he sat in repose trying to make sense of the commotion around, closed his eyes to contemplate. One rapid sound of footsteps was going in his direction, opened his eyes, the next moment he heard , Sang Nuan's anxious voice drumming outside, “ Mo Yuan! Quickly open the door!”

(T/N: Isn't weird? Why is he sleeping in Su Su's cot?)

"The doors be opened quickly, Sang Nuan without wasting a moment and idle words, directly announced," Su Su is missing !"

Her voice barely finished when her heart suddenly skipped a beat. It was because Mo Yuan's pair of usually calm pupil was cold and dark at the moment, like a bottomless deep pool, those heavy dark eyes radiates a cold light almost flooding the strong darkness.

Sang Nuan subconsciously step back...

(T/N: Is his eyes was that vicious for always calm Sang Nuan to step back?)
